DEACON DOMINIC CERRATO, PH.D.

is Executive Director of Diaconal Ministries and Director of Diaconal Formation for the Diocese of Joliet. He also offers spiritual direction through the Pastoral Solutions Institute and is editor of Deacon Digest magazine. Formerly, he served in full-time pastoral ministry specializing in adult faith formation. He has taught theology at Franciscan University of Steubenville and Duquesne University of the Holy Ghost. While at Franciscan University, Deacon Dominic also established and developed the Distance Learning Master's in Theology Program.

Deacon Dominic possesses a BA in Theology from Franciscan University, a MA in Theology from Duquesne University where he also completed his Ph.D. course work with a concentration in healthcare ethics. In 2009, he was awarded a Ph.D in Theology from the Graduate Theological Foundation.

Ordained in 1995 as the first permanent deacon of the Diocese of Steubenville, Deacon Dominic is a national speaker, author and retreat master. Beyond scholarly and popular articles, his book entitled, In the Person of Christ the Servant, will form the basis of the Conferences.

Deacon Dominic and his wife Judith have been married for 36 years and they have seven children and many grandchildren.
