Event Title	NEW News from the Newman Catholic Center in Davis
Copy English Text Below
The Newman Catholic Center is preparing for a unique and historical year of ministry in Davis. The university has initiated a robust COVID plan to ensure the health and wellbeing of students, and the city limits what we can do in-person. While most of our opportunities will be presented remotely, the Diocese of Sacramento and St. James can continue to offer various formation gatherings, adoration and Mass! Our center will also continue some of its landmark ministries (fellowships, retreats, service, even socials) but in new ways. Our site is also undergoing some transformation. Soon, over 4500 sq. ft. of land at the Newman Catholic Center will be GREEN in more ways than one. To beautify the property, conserve water, save money, and make more outdoor space available for students, we will be installing and repurposing recycled, athletic turf! Please keep the Newman Catholic Center lifted up in prayer as we move forward to serve the young adults of Davis pursuing vast academic and faith-filled endeavors.
