

BLACK CATHOLIC HISTORY MONTH

Right and Just: Racial Equity and the Promise of a Synodal Church

Daryl Grigsby will speak about opportunities for a more participatory Church as the synod concludes in Rome.

A regular contributor to National Catholic Reporter and Black Catholic Messenger, Mr. Grigsby's latest book is Catholics for the Common Good: An Eternal Offering.

He holds a Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies from Seattle University School of Theology and Ministry.

Saturday, November 2, 2024 – 3:00 p.m.

Ministries Room, St. Ignatius Loyola Parish, 3235 Arden Way

Reflection, prayer, refreshments, discussion, Mass in the church

HOSTED BY PARISH ADVOCATES FOR RACIAL JUSTICE

A lay ministry at work in the Sacramento Diocese. More information: 916-233-5941