

The Diocese of Sacramento is pleased to welcome Irina Ganchenko to the Pastoral Center. Irina is an employee of Catholic Mutual Group, our primary insurer for property and liability risks.

With Irina's hire, Catholic Mutual Group continues its practice of embedding a Catholic Mutual employee in the diocesan administrative office. The intent of this full-time presence is to provide enhanced risk management and claims management services to the insured parishes, schools, and social services agencies within the diocese.

Irina is an experienced California insurance professional, with nearly 18 years of multi-line insurance claims experience. She is originally from Ukraine and immigrated to California in 1995. Irina is excited and grateful to have the opportunity to use her professional skills to serve the local Church in this new role.

Irina will serve as the primary point of contact for Catholic Mutual insurance matters for the Diocese of Sacramento. Her responsibilities will include claims management and loss prevention via on-site risk management inspections, contract review, and general guidance to insured parishes, schools, and agencies.

Irina's contact information is as follows:
