“THE CATHOLIC FOUNDATION is an institution dedicated to serving the people of God in the Diocese of Sacramento by expanding the saving mission of Jesus in Northern California. I am inspired by the generous sacrifices and abiding resolve demonstrated by Catholics throughout the twenty counties of the Diocese. Together we preserve and safeguard the sacrificial gifts of God’s people so that the Catholic community may continue the saving mission of the Lord Jesus now and for generations to come. **”

Tony Riehl
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

“Even through turbulent times I am amazed by the steadfast dedication and willingness of our parishioners throughout the Diocese to help the poor and marginalized.”

Safeguarding resources for Catholic works

ECONOMIC REALITIES IN 2023 EMPHASIZED THE NEED FOR CONSISTENT STEWARDSHIP

The work of The Catholic Foundation in 2023 was centered on its time-tested and consistent vision: management and growth of current and future financial resources. Following recent years of unforeseen and great need caused by the pandemic, humanitarian and natural disasters, 2023 was a year to look ahead in readiness to continue the saving mission of the Lord Jesus.

Supporting donors as they express their generosity

The Catholic Foundations is a safe and reliable way for donors to support the Catholic works they care about most. As fiduciaries, the Foundation strives for a market return on investments and strictly adheres to the social responsibility guidelines of the US Conference of Catholic Bishops. Donors can express their generosity with confidence that the stewardship of their gifts and intentions are our focus and our mission.

“Encouraging stewardship as a way of life is the backbone of what we do.”

John McGinness
President, Board of Directors

Funding values-based education

Generous parishioners ensure the future of Catholic education

Our responsibility to prepare future leaders brings us together to support faith-based education. One hundred fifteen funds have been established and entrusted to The Catholic Foundation. Many by families in memory of loved-ones.

“The generosity of our donors through The Catholic Foundation allows us to maintain our tuition assistance program and to continue bringing a Christ centered Catholic education to our community.”

Mrs. Julie Nguyen
Principal, St. Patrick Academy

$69,052,682

is safely managed by TCF for the benefit of Catholic Schools

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS THROUGHOUT THE DIOCESE are devoted to educating the whole child in the spirit of Christian service and academic excellence. Access to scholarships is essential to fulfilling the mission to welcome students from all ethnic, economic and spiritual backgrounds.

Funding long-term priorities

Ways to support works most important to you and your family

CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITY (CGA)
A gift of cash or property with fixed payments to you while you are here

BEQUEST
A gift made through your will or trust

FAMILY LEAD TRUST (CLT)
Cash or property in a trust. Payments go to who you designate. The property later goes to your family with no additional tax

ENDOWMENT
Provides support to the works of your choice by producing a steady income stream in perpetuity

CHARITABLE REMAINDER TRUST (CRT)
Cash or property in a trust that makes payments for your lifetime or a number of years, then passes what remains to the parish or works you designate

IRA CHARITABLE ROLLOVER
Those 70½ or older can direct IRA distributions to various diocesan ministries, including your parish

$42,084,474

is safely managed by TCF for the benefit of parish life, vocations, social ministries and more

“After years of planning, prayer and hard work, Holy Rosary is finally able to make the long-term vision for our new church a reality.” Fr. Jonathan B. Molina, Pastor

The Catholic Foundation supports parishes with advising and resources when needed.

When any parish, like Holy Rosary in Woodland, are considering a capital campaign, The Catholic Foundation can refer and help select a vetted professional to guide and support the campaign every step of the way. All parishioners in our diocese can rely on TCF for faith-based estate planning and tax-advantaged ways to support their parish.

Funding
a profound difference

“Giving financially is as important as giving time.”

Reyna Judilla
 St. John the Baptist Parish, Folsom
 Exodus Project volunteer mentor

Once again, donors helped brothers and sisters in need through the Annual Catholic Appeal

The Appeal is solely dedicated to the social mission of the Church in Northern California. In 2023, 21,150 Catholics provided more than $4.8 million.

465,386

people were helped in 2023

- 339,266 found food, rent, encouragement
- 83,618 were helped by St. Vincent de Paul
- 2,400 pregnancies were supported
- 594 refugees and immigrants were supported
- 102 parishes could help others
- 12 future priests continued formation
- 5 Catholic schools in poor areas received funds

GIVING TO THE ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL is a meaningful way parishioners can live our faith through action as Jesus asks us to do. This program of The Catholic Foundation makes a profound difference in the lives of women, men, children and families in our diocese.

Together as Catholics, we came together in the charity of Christ to restore dignity and hope to those who suffer alone.

AS COSTS CONTINUED TO RISE FOR FOOD, RENTAL ASSISTANCE AND BASIC NECESSITIES, funds from the Annual Catholic Appeal made it possible for 18 charities to respond to the greatest needs in their communities without compromising programs that stabilize families and help people realize their full human potential.
