

Presentation Preschool is looking for two joyful preschool teachers to provide a safe, loving, nurturing and educational environment for young children. Teachers at Presentation Preschool will be a part of a program that nurtures each child's cognitive, social, emotional, physical and spiritual development. Preschool teachers will provide and implement lesson plans with hands-on curriculum, that is fun, creative and fosters the love of learning and love for God.